EW YORK, Jan. 31 .- There were few deevlopments in today's prices to call for comment. Prices on the whole were firm with a perceptible decrease in the business of "accelerating" public interest. assume as officials of the stock expange are splitting hairs in defining the difference between manipulation and sculative activity before the governor the state, financial commentators must sade he careful in the use of what they are long considered familiar terms. Interest in the Can issues will undoubtif lessen with the announcement of a plan to pay the back dividend on the released. The placing of a bond issue fill practically make the preferred stock second preferred issue. Hereafter the mumon shares are to receive dividends and must be solemnly referred to as an avestment. The public will have the holes of three issues instead of two. The conds will undoubtedly prove attractive and the preferred attock, once the back twomans are paid off will look "chear" and should grow in favor as a specular the systems. prices to call for comment, Prices whends are paid off will look "cheap" and abould grow in favor as a speculative investment. The future of the emmon is open to speculation. It beam today at 46 and, after declining to does at 48. The preferred shares actuated between 129 and 124, closing 1261, a net loss of 12.

Corn Products Active.

Corn Products Active.

Corn Products common was again active and on a turnover of 20,000 shares doed at 164, up f. This is a purely peculative issue with possibilities. Leath Valley showed considerable irregularity, which was not explained by any sews of the day.

Resding and Erie were both comparatively steady. There was heaviness in the traction group on account of the hanges announced in the sub-way contacts. Norfolk & Western continued eat, selling down to 110 under the officing of the new convertible bonds.

Colorado Fuel advanced easily to 28 to the statement that the company could by off dividends on the preferred shares, bere was also strength and activity in symbile Steel and the common closed it an advance of 18.

Pitisbury Coal issues were firm broughout the day on a renewal of a more of the early announcement of the lain to say the back dividends on the referred shares issue of the debenture ond.

Late in the afternoon there were umors of the plan to separate Union and outhern Pacific, but although these umors went into considerable detail, say had no effect on the shares. Southern Pacific moved within a narrow limit ad did not respond to the stories of gregation.

Business Expansion Continued Through Month of January.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Bradstreet's to-NEW YORK, Jan. 31. Braustrees in morrow will say:
Though trade trends are running in a favorable direction, there is enough irregularity to divest the situation of uniformity. Over and beyond all is the fact that the larger centers of distribution continue to do remarkably well, this being most matent in cereal producing tion continue to do remarkably well, this being most patent in cereal producing regions that were favored by heavy crops. Comparatively few places can boast of good seasonable retail trade.

Money is easy, funds are returning from the interior in volume and western banks are liberal buyers of commercial paper. The stock market appears to have been heavily oversoid, but most of the activity has been contributed by a few stocks.

of the activity has been contributed by a few stocks.

Business failures for the week ending January 20 were 281, which compares with 312 in the like week of 1912. There were 25 tailures in Canada.

Wheat (including flour) exports from the United States and Canada for the week ending January 30 aggregate 5,370,916 bushels, against 2,157,469 bushels this week last year. NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Dun's Review

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Dun's Review will say tomorrow.
The business expansion which began in 1912 was maintained steadily throughout the first month of the new year and reports from various sections continue satisfactory. Weather conditions affect distribution adversely in certain indussatisfactory. Weather conditions affect distribution adversely in certain industries and tariff uncertainty is responsible for conservative buying in some lines.

Labor troubles have interfered with the demand for materials used in the manufacture of clothing, but the general effect on the dry goods trade is comparatively slight.

The iron and steel trade continues so active that only the inability of the mills to make prompt delivery prevents further expansion. The open winter has been favorable for new building and important construction work is in prespect.

In view of the large excess of merchandise exports from this country in the last year, the fact that we have recently sent over $16,000,000 of gold out of the country is regarded as an unusual development. Our own securities markets are quiet.

Bradstreet's Bank Clearings.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Bradstreet's bank clearings report for the week ending January 30 shows an aggregate of $3,288,570,000, as against $3,593,888,000 last week and $2,167,259,000 in the corresponding week last year. The following is a list of the cities:

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—The Commercial Sulletin will say of the wool market to Morrow:

While the trade has been considerably interested in the tariff hearings on schedule K and more vitally affected by the strike among the garment workers, which has spread out into New York state and bids fair to come into Massachusetts, there has been some inquiry for wool, and it is apparent that the manufacturers will have to come into the market soon if immediate conditions become better. Sales for the week have come better. Sales for the week have not been heavy.

The shipments of wool from Boston from January 1 to January 20, inclusive, were 19,967,117 pounds, against 27,679,844 pounds for the same period last year. The receipte from January 1 to January 30, inclusive, were 14,850,798 pounds, against 15,035,982 pounds for the same period last year. period last year.
